Hello 🙌 I'm Jonny and I've been making creative things my whole life. From writing stories for the school newspaper in Year 2, to sorting out Prince Charles' socials, I have a passion for engaging content and beautiful design (oh and an allergy to Comic Sans).

Experience

Creative Director and CEO
Jonarc Creative Ltd | 2016 - Present

Most Recent

Operate a successful design and creative company, specialising in branding, design and creative services for the entertainment industries. Recent projects have included a rebrand and on air graphics for the UK's Local TV network, new brands for Pride Radio & Durham On Air and print/social/digital assets for the Radio Academy, the BBC, the Student Radio Association, the NHS and HRH the Prince of Wales.

Financial Crime Specialist
Monzo Bank Ltd | 2020 - Present

Most Recent

Part of the team protecting this rapidly growing bank and its customers from financial crime, performing anti-money laundering investigations and account reviews and undertaking high-level account decisioning, including crime related account closures and preparing investigative notes and findings for suspicious activity reporting to the National Crime Agency. Also undertook cross platform customer operations duties across social, chat, emails and calls, helping to deliver the Making Money Work for Everyone ethos.

Presenter & Producer
Bauer Media Group | 2014 - 2020

Presenter and producer of market leading commercial radio programming and digital content for the Hits Radio Brand Network. Produced the legendary talk show NightOwls during a week long outside broadcast from Jamaica, creating hundreds of hours of speech radio and delivering innumerable design, audio and video assets for the station's socials. During my time at Bauer, I also led the award winning on air and digital output from the Great North Run and supported on numerous commercial and S&P projects.

Head of Brand & Comms & Production Manager of the Student Radio Awards
Student Radio Association | 2011 - 2018

Responsible for the design and visual output for the all of the association's communications channels and the well received rebrand which unified the various strands of the organisation and paved the way for a more consistent and harmonious aesthetic. Shared responsibility for the organisation's social channels and helped to drive up engagement through quality content and design. Managed complex stakeholder relationships with BBC and commercial partners to deliver the association's aims and produce the annual awards and conference events, managing budgets over £100k and live producing the events at London's O2.

Specialist
